

Loire Valley

Sleep in a hobbit cabin, semi-buried under the green, and experience the region differently. An unusual night that amuses the children, intrigues the parents, and brings together the whole family around a simple, playful and exotic moment.

Few watercourses awaken the imagination. The Loire, the last wild river in France, invites you to a gentle adventure. In a canoe, families move together along the water, between flying herons and stops on sandbars....

Domaine de la Trigalière

In Touraine, the Domaine de la Trigalière reinvents the art of living in the countryside. Its houses nestled in the forest offer calm, nature and comfort for a family stay away from the hustle and bustle.
