Burgundy through Marie-Pierre's eyes

Burgundy... a land where my roots run deep. From Chablis to Beaune or Dijon, it unveils an extraordinary terroir, where vineyards sketch landscapes of infinite richness.

Rolling hills, charming villages, and storied lands weave together in perfect harmony. Medieval churches, ancient monasteries, and ancestral estates stand as guardians of a heritage of rare authenticity, imbued with refinement and the echoes of history.

Normandy through Barbara's eyes

What will always amaze me about Normandy is the beauty of the colors that transform with the rhythm of the wind and light. I can fully understand the fascination of the Impressionists for these ever-changing landscapes and their obsession with capturing these fleeting moments.

This magnificent region is full of diverse experiences, whether historical, cultural, or sporty, not to mention its generous and authentic terroir, which always offers new flavors to discover!

I'm proud to be Norman!

Basque country through Léa's eyes

What never fails to captivate me about the Basque Country is the way the sea and the mountains blend together, creating a breathtaking harmony of landscapes. The waves of the Atlantic crash against wild coastlines, while the Pyrenees rise majestically on the horizon, offering a spectacle that changes with the time of day, the light, and the seasons.

The Basque Country is a land of passion and tradition: from the Basque pelota to the village festivals, from the unique flavors of its cuisine to the beauty of its colorful villages, everything here invites discovery and wonder. It is a region where authenticity blends with the soul of the people who live here, a generous terroir that never ceases to surprise and delight.
