Royal Travel : A timeless experience at Château Louise de La Vallière

The Château Louise de La Vallière offers a true escape from time, where history and luxury meet to offer a unique experience. Located in the Loire Valley, this 5-star hotel is an intimate retreat in the heart of the French nobility.

The experience begins upon arrival in this 16th century estate, beautifully restored to preserve its heritage while offering all modern comforts. Each room and suite is an ode to the past, decorated with sumptuous fabrics, period furniture, and refined details recalling the grandeur of centuries past. Staying here is to relive the royal era, where Louise de La Vallière, first favorite of the Sun-King, has left her mark.

The castle gardens offer a haven of peace for relaxation and contemplation. Walk through the vast green spaces, flowerbeds and woodlands, perfect for a total disconnect and a return to serenity. These places embody the very essence of tranquility and well-being, inviting an escape in harmony with nature.

The castle also offers an exceptional gastronomic experience with its restaurant, where fine dishes and old-fashioned game celebrate the culinary traditions of the time. To complete your stay, the «Le Saint-Évremond» bar invites you to taste an exquisite selection of wines and champagnes, enriching your immersion in the art de vivre à la française.
