

Spring, In the Heart of Gentle Provence

Provence, where nature meets the art of living, flourishes in serene harmony. Stroll through charming villages nestled in rolling landscapes, delight in nature's rebirth—from blooming gardens to sunlit hills—and savor the region's rich heritage. Here, tranquility reigns, offering the perfect setting to unwind and embrace the simple pleasures of life.

An Invitation to Creativity and Renewal

Provence has inspired masters like Cézanne, Van Gogh, Matisse, and Picasso, whose works reflect the region's exceptional light and iconic landscapes. Each season unveils its own unique spectacle, making Provence a haven for creativity and renewal. Immerse yourself in the arts with open-air painting or clay sculpting workshops guided by a local artist in Gordes. Prefer photography? Capture the charm of Lourmarin, one of France's most beautiful villages, and round off your visit with a wine tasting at a family-run organic winery.

Wellness and Flavor in Harmony

For those seeking relaxation, Provence provides the perfect setting to unwind and recharge. We create tailor-made wellness programs designed especially for your clients, including yoga sessions, sensory workshops, and holistic therapies, ensuring they achieve harmony of body and mind in this serene environment. When it comes to gastronomy, Provence's organic, seasonal cuisine celebrates simplicity and purity of flavor, offering an authentic taste of the region's soul.

— “ —

« Provence conceals its mysteries behind their obviousness. » Jean Giono, French artist & writer.

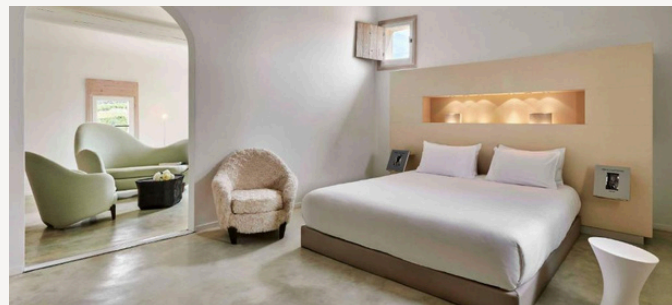

Our Top Hotel Pick

Domaine des Andéols: A Haven of Serenity Amid Luberon's Landscapes

Perched on a hill bathed in light, the Domaine des Andéols reinvents Provencal hospitality by mixing art, nature and elegance. At the heart of a vast olive grove, this confidential address offers unique houses, thought as works of art.

Each house, unique, marie design furniture, art objects and contemporary touches, while offering breathtaking views of the landscapes of the Luberon. Luxury is in the simplicity of an intimate setting, where every detail is carefully thought out to enhance the stay.

With its swimming pool suspended between sky and earth, its restaurant nestled in nature, and a refined cuisine celebrating the flavors of the terroir, the Domaine des Andéols is an invitation to contemplation and relaxation, in the heart of the Luberon.

FRANCE by ILANDA

CREATING EXCEPTIONAL JOURNEYS

