Exclusive hideaways in the heart of the Alps

Escape to a sanctuary where luxury meets nature, with exclusive chalets offering an ideal retreat for intimate gatherings. Here, timeless elegance merges with the serene beauty of the French Alps, creating the perfect backdrop for memorable moments.

Each chalet becomes a home away from home, with expansive views and personalized services that invite pure relaxation. Experience a unique blend of privacy, comfort, and warm sophistication, where every moment is crafted to meet your desires.

Ultima Collection

An exceptional refuge in the heart of Courchevel 1650

Nestled at the foot of Courchevel's pristine slopes, Ultima Collection redefines the alpine getaway by seamlessly blending the charm of an intimate chalet with the luxurious amenities of a five-star hotel. Upon arrival, guests are greeted by a warm, multilingual staff dedicated to making each stay exceptional. With thirteen private chalets, each boasting four to five lavish bedrooms, Ultima offers spacious mountain retreats that feature spectacular views and the utmost privacy.

Designed with contemporary elegance, each chalet embraces cozy, wood-paneled interiors that create a warm, inviting atmosphere. Guests enjoy a private butler service, ensuring every detail—from fresh breakfasts to ski equipment—is perfectly managed. Chef Alexandre Demard's Michelin-starred creations, which can be enjoyed at the restaurant or delivered directly to your chalet, add a culinary dimension to the stay.

Relaxation continues beyond the chalet doors, with two exquisite spas offering indulgent treatments and serene wellness experiences. Whether winding down by the fireplace after a day on the slopes or savoring the privacy of a luxurious spa session, Ultima Collection offers a winter escape that is both secluded and unforgettable.

La Mourra

A Private Retreat Amidst Alpine Elegance

La Mourra in Val d'Isère offers luxurious chalets of great exclusivity, each offering a spacious and refined cocoon in the heart of the Alps. The five private chalets, integrated in a mountain hamlet, combine traditional wooden architecture with contemporary touches, with spacious living spaces that spread over several levels. Each chalet has four to seven elegantly decorated bedrooms, all with en suite bathrooms, and warm living spaces with spacious lounges, refined dining areas and a central fireplace for relaxing moments with family or friends.

Each chalet also has a private spa area with indoor pool, sauna and hammam for a moment of complete relaxation after a day on the slopes. The hotel offers a dedicated butler service, ready to organize every detail of your stay, from reservations at the gourmet restaurant to the management of your ski equipment. The kitchen of each chalet is also equipped for self-catering stays, although the Japanese-French restaurant at La Mourra is a must for those who wish to enjoy tasty dishes without leaving their comfort box.

Combining personalized services, high-end hotel services and intimate atmosphere, the chalets of La Mourra embody an authentic and exclusive alpine retreat, perfect for stays in complete discretion in the heart of Val d'Isère.
